might hear me when I didn't want you to.

SPEAKER: No, sir. That's what I'm up here for. Go ahead, Senator Dickinson.

SENATOR DICKINSON: Will you read the amendment please, Vince.

CLERK: Read.

SPEAKER: Thank you. OK. Next is Senator Goodrich, still on the Carpenter amendment.

SENATOR GOODRICH: Mr. President, members of the body, if you strike the lines, the words, rather, "such buildings", you've gutted the bill. There is no sense in having the bill if you take the buildings out of it. I would sincerely and enthusiastically oppose the amendment that takes the words "such buildings" out of this bill. There's not much sense in striking those two words and keeping the bill and I would strongly urge your defeat of the Carpenter amendment. There is another amendment coming that would solve the problem, I think, if we could just get to it.

SPEAKER: All right, Senator Syas. Still on the Carpenter amendment here.

SENATOR SYAS: Well, I'd oppose the amendment because it would do just about nothing from what we can now do. The way I read the bill is that
